They drank from the rock (Revitheem) at the beginning (Exod. 17:1-7) and at the end (Sin wilderness) of it (Num. 20:2-13). They habitually made use of the source which was always at hand.

Their baptism and partaking of spiritual food and drink did not protect them from God's discipline when they craved evil things. Participation in baptism and the Lord's Supper will not protect Christians either. We should never regard participation in 1Co 10:10 [illegible], [illegible]; [illegible].

1Co 10:11 [illegible]; [illegible].

V7 - First, the Israelites participated in idolatry when they ate and played in the presence of the golden calf (Exod. 32:6).

V8 - Second, the Israelites practiced immorality (lit. fornication) when they participated in one of the Moabites' religious feasts (Num. 25:1-9).

V9 - Third, the Israelites tested the Lord Jesus Christ by taxing His patience. They dared Him to live up to His promise to discipline them if they doubted His word. They continued to complain even though He faithfully provided for them (Num. 21:4-9).

V10 - Fourth, the Israelites grumbled frequently against the Lord

1Co 10:12 [illegible], [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible].

Paul concluded with a word of warning to those who felt too confident that they were all right with God. The "strong" who felt free to participate in pagan feasts seem to be those he had in mind.

1Co 10:13 [illegible]; [illegible], [illegible], [illegible].

1Co 10:14 [illegible], [illegible]. Formerly Paul urged the Corinthians to flee fornication (6:18). Now he concluded all he said in verses 1-13 with the charge to flee idolatry, the worship of idols.

1Co 10:15 [illegible]; [illegible].
